TWIN GUN - BOATS. The Wilmington and the Nashville to

Be Launched on the 19th. PARTY FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

All the Leading Officers of the Navy Department Will Be Present on the Oceasion-Portsmouth Firemen Returning Home.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 4 .--(Special.)-The launching of the two gunboats, Wilmington and Nashville, at Newbort News on the 19th Instant, wiil be quite an event in naval circles. At the department here the liveliest interest Is being taken in it, and a great deal of time and attention is being devoted to perfecting the details of the ceremony. The fact that it is the first time in the history of the navy that there will be a twin-naming of two war vessels, makes It still more interesting. The ladies upon whom the honor of naming the boats will be conferred have not yet been selected, but it is safe to predict that one of them will represent the State of Delaware, and probably the city of Wilmington, and the other Tennessee and the city of Nashville.

A distinguished party, which will include Secretary Herbert and Miss Herbert; Assistant-Secretary of the Navy McAdoo, and Mrs. McAdoo, all the leading officials, and a large number of representative of other departments of the government, will leave here on the 18th on the steamer Newport News, of the Norfolk and Washington Line. They will arrive at the Norfolk navy-yard the same evening, where they will be received by the commundant, with the usual honors. The evening will be spent at the yard and in Norfolk city, and on the morning of Saturday, the 19th, the party will go over to News to participate in the hunching ceremo-nies, returning here on Sunday morn-ter, the Nth. A large delegation of press ing the 3th. A large delegation of press representatives and other privileged out-siders will accompany the party. POSTAL AND PERSONAL.

DEATH OF A MINISTER.

Rev. B. W. S. Hishop, of the Methodist Church-The Right Thing. TAZEWELL, VA., October 4.—(Special) ev. B. W. S. Bishop, paster of the ethodist Episcopai Church, South, at this place, died this morning at 1 o'clock, after an illness of forty-eight hours. Mr. this place, died this morning at 1 o'clock, after an illness of forty-eight hours. Mr. Riship was greatly beloved by his congregation and the community, was widely known throughout the Hoiston Conference and the Southern Church, and was one of the most prominent and consecreted men of that Church, His remains will be taken to Emery and Henry (of less, for the interment, which will take place on Samday. The annual conference, of which he was a member, will convene here on the 16th instant, and the presence of Mr. Bishop will be greatly missed by his brethren, who have met him for so many years in these conferences. The pardon of the Governor for It. O. Haldwin and others, convicted in the Pocahontas cases, relieving them of the one day's imprisonment, conditioned on the payment of the fine has been received by the Attorney for the Commonwealth, and is the right think, done at the right time. The Court refused to allow the defendants to show the situation at Pocahontas in mitigation of the assault, and hence the verifict. A member of the jury told your correspondent that the jury were under the impression they were compelled to add imprisonment, under the statute, and but for this they would have added once.

NORTH ATLANTIC SQUADRON.

Admiral flunce Seeks Harbor in Hampton Roads.

FORT MONROE, VA. October 4.—(Special.)—The North Atlantic squadron, which went to sea on Tuesday last for freet manoeuvres, arrived in Hampton Roads at 4 o'clock this afternoon, one day ahead of schedule-time. This was due to the storm which has been working its way up the coast for the past three days striking the feet between Cape Honry and Hatteras and kicking up an ugly SOUGHT HARBOR.

Admiral Bunce, with that good judgment that always of arecterizes him, concluded it was not necessary to subject the ships to unnecessary wear and tear, and quietly sailed into the Roads for a harbor. The floot presented a handsome appearance as the vessels came in from the capes, the flagship New York leading. As they drew mear the battleship Texas saluted the admiral's flag with thirteen guis, which salute was returned by the New York. Signals were then run up, and the heet anchored. There is much speculation as to how long the vessels will remain here. A number of them may go to Norfolk for coal, but it is thought the Admiral will get them outside again as soon as pieceble. There is a large contingent of na mades at the Hygola Hotel, and a bally being given there in honor of the flect to-night. SOUGHT HARBOR.

THE ATTENDANTS. The attendants were Mr. John S. Scott and Miss Annie Causey. Mr. Robert H. Bidham and Miss Annie Potter, Mr. Iswart K. Pewell and Miss Charlotte. Parker, Hon. J. W. G. Blackstone and Riss Nois Grant, Mr. W. J. Coleburg and Miss Eila Parks, Mr. Otho Parks and Miss Eleanor Custis, Mr. Edward D. Waddy and Miss Lena Chandler, Mr. Edward Ayers and Miss Helen Grimalds. Little Catherine Taylor and Mainie Causey acted as flower-girls, Miss Annie D. Custis as maid of honor, and Mr. Edward O. F. Custis as best man.

The groom, who was clad in conventional black, and the bride, who was arrayed in a bandsome white organdicand carried a bunch of white roses in her hand, met before the pulpit, where standing heneath a large floral bell, they were joined in wedlock by Rey. Byron C. Clark, according to the form of the Presbyterian Church. The bridesmaids were all clad in white organdic or silk, and two of them carried bouquets of white roses. The scene during the ceremony was one of great beauty.

The ceremony over, the bridal party and a large number of invited guests rode across the country in the moonlight to the hospitable home of the groom's tather, on Deep creek, where they enjoyed an abundance of good cheer and an old-fashloned Virginia wedding supper.

MANY PRESENTS.

There were many valuable and hand ome presents. There were many some presents.

The bride is a very attractive young lady from the neighborhood of Parksley, and the groom is a popular and prosperous young farmer. He is a son of Harry W. Custis, of Deep creek, and a grandson of the late William Samuel Custis, long High Sheriff of Accomac, whom he strikingly resembles in personal appearance.

Rev. John W. Lee, the well-known Southern Methodist evangelist, is holding a tent meeting near Pungoteague, in the southern part of Accomac. A tabernacle has been erected to seat nearly 2,00 people, and meetings are held every day and night, at which great crowds are present. It is estimated that more than 2,500 people attended the meeting last Sunday evening, and the attendance has been very encouraging on all the subsequent days and nights.

The death is reported of Mrs. Peter H. days and nights.

The death is reported of Mrs. Peter H. Avers of Puncoteague. She had for several years past been a sufferer from consumption, and her death was not unexpected. She was about 24 years old.

In the treatment of this malady he was eminently successful.

"Plain, but athletic."

(After sketch in New York Truth.) Evidently the picture of a woman cleaning house for the first time with Pearline. She finds that what has always been the hardest kind of hard work is now comparatively easy, pleasant, quickly done-and in her joy and enthusiasm and high spirits, she kicks up her heels.

Probably this is an extreme case, Still, it may be there are numbers of women who, when they clean house first with Pearline, manifest their pleasure in the same way. You don't hear of it, though. They simply tell you that in all their lives the work of house-cleaning has never been so light, so satisfactory, so soon over, so thoroughly well done.
